PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release – January 2, 2018

Ocean Springs brings a little snow to town

(Ocean Springs, MS) – It's time to make a little snow in Ocean Springs. With the coldest temperatures so far, we in Ocean Springs are going to try to create another "snow day". Come along with us this week and play in the man-made snow in the L&N Depot parking lot from 9-noon today and throughout this week.

"Even though it is really cold outside, it does not always mean the snow we are creating will stick, but throughout this week we will continue to try each morning to bring a little fun to this cold weather in Ocean Springs," say Shawn Sutton, events with the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce-Main Street-Tourism Bureau.

Two years ago the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce-Main Street-Tourism Bureau took the opportunity of the cold weather and created real snow in the front part of the Chamber of Commerce parking lot. Hundreds of families and kids experienced snow making real snowmen and snow angels in Ocean Springs. The weather is just right to bring a real snow day back to life once again. We are hoping for another fun year.

Beginning at 9 a.m. until the snow melts each day this week, the community is invited to bundle up, bring the whole family and play in the snow! Keep a watch on the Chamber's Facebook page for details on if the snow falls or if it does not stick.

For more information on this event, contact the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce-Main Street-Tourism Bureau at 228-875-4424.
