New live show gives glimpse into Ocean Springs community

(Ocean Springs, MS) - Ocean Springs has a new way to get the word out about the arts, culture and activities happening throughout town. A new Facebook "live" series presented by the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce-Main Street-Tourism Bureau and the Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center airs weekly.

The show, filmed live on the Chamber's Facebook page each Thursday and shared to the Mary C's page, is hosted by Cynthia Dobbs Sutton, executive director of the Ocean Springs Chamber and Stacy Howell, executive director of the Mary C.

"We want to give the public another way of seeing Ocean Springs and the amazing things this community has to offer," Sutton said. "Social media is an effective way of getting a brand out there. It is also a fun avenue."

The show is spontaneous and filled with timely information from varied locations in the colorful city. Guests such as Mayor Dobson, have appeared on the show.

Stacy Howell, executive director of the Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center said, "We are grateful for this opportunity to showcase arts and commerce coming together and how together we can build our creative economy."
